

Burnt Hill Recreational Trail Plan

DRAFT: Development in progress

10/04/05

Preface

The Burnt Hill Recreational Trail Plan is intended to guide the Washington State Department of Natural Resources in the management of recreation use on recreation trails and across the landscape within the Burnt Hill block for the next five years. Implementation progress and results will be frequently evaluated, and adjustments made as needed. The full plan will be reviewed in year 5, or as close to year 5 as resources allow, and changes made as needed to ensure compatibility with trust obligations and overall forest management objectives.

Public involvement in this plan \(included/ is including\) a public survey, public meetings, a focus group, and the solicitation of comments on the plan, including those meetings and hearings held in compliance with the State Environmental Policy Act (SEPA).
